The Real Story of The Sloppy Joe

Town Hall Delicatessen was established in 1927. It is the birthplace of the Sloppy Joe Sandwich, which contains 3 layers of specially baked Pullman Rye Bread, two meats, a cheese, Cole slaw and Town Hall's Homemade Russian Dressing. Town Hall has used the same recipes for generations and the finest ingredients, including our homemade Mayonnaise and Russian Dressing. Both are made fresh daily and are Preservative free. The fine meat selection includes both "Town Hall Turkey" and "Town Hall Roast Beef", two Town Hall favorites for generations. Both are roasted on premises using Town Hall's traditional recipes.

It is widely accepted that the Sloppy Joe Sandwich was named after one discovered at Joe's Bar and Eatery in Havana by Robert Sweeney, the then-mayor of Maplewood, in 1934 while he was on vacation. Ernest Hemingway and other famous figures frequented Joe's in Havana, which, at the time, was open to American tourism. Joe, the proprietor, was famous for the disarray in the Bar-alas, the nickname "Sloppy Joe"! While the Mayor was at Joe's in Cuba, he had a sandwich that he loved so much that when he returned to the States, he asked the owners of Town Hall Deli to replicate it. It was made with Cole slaw, cow tongue and Swiss cheese, with lots of Russian dressing on thin rye bread. And thus, the Sloppy Joe that is infamous across New Jersey, and becoming more familiar across the country, was born. And now you know the REAL story of the Sloppy Joe.

Town Hall Deli and the Sloppy Joe have been featured on television in "Roker on the Road" on the Food Network, EYEWITNESS NEWS on WABC Channel 7 New York, as well as in print in THE NEW YORK TIMES, THE STAR LEDGER newspapers and in NEW JERSEY MONTHLY magazine.

Many other delicatessens serve Sloppy Joe's.... many have two meats and a cheese, with coleslaw, on two or three slices of rye bread. None though, are made with Town Hall's own Russian or Mayonnaise. Both are proprietary recipes that have been passed down for nearly a century. Few people know the actual closely guarded secret ingredients. Town Hall still serves to-go Joes in the traditional cake box to preserve them for your enjoyment. Town Hall Delicatessen has recently re-located to its fourth location in South Orange, at the corner of First and Academy Streets. Town Hall Deli ships Joes across the continental U.S. Call for Details.
